Business Summary

This is an award winning, local coffee and sandwich shop that has quickly rooted itself in the community. It began as a specialty coffee shop serving coffees of all roasts, blends, & flavors. By popular demand, they started serving sandwiches, which immediately became an integral part of business and has created a lucrative opportunity in catering. Everyone is welcome and all are treated like family. The owner has worked hard to maintain a loyal customer base with quality employees and friendly, personal service. This coffee shop is located in growing commercial district, nestled in a residential community just minutes from the college and offers an incredible opportunity for the new owner!
